Introduction

Welcome to the Kingdom of Daventry and King's Quest!

I hope you are having as much fun playing this game as all of us had creating it. There are many different ways to play King's Quest. If you have a problem that I haven't mentioned here, feel free to contact Sierra at (209) 683-8989.

The whole point of playing King's Quest is to discover its puzzles and then solve them. However, this may be the first adventure game you've ever played or the puzzles may be so well hidden (or so obtuse) that you don't even know where to begin. Hence, this hint book.

How to use a hint book

When you get stumped, look through this book and find the question that is closest to your problem. Use your answer card to uncover the answers in sequence by placing the red window over the answer you wish to read. Hints progress from mildly helpful hints, to strong clues, to here's the solution. It's best to read them individually, and in sequence. Be sure to read only those hints you really need.

How NOT to use a hint book

Be sure to read only those hints you really need. Do not indiscriminately scan through the book reading hint after hint. Read only those hints pertaining to your problem. Don't think that every question in here is real; along with the legitimate questions, I've thrown in some fakes. Just because a hint mentions a snake, doesn't mean that snakes are important in this game, or even exist in this game.

If you've finished King's Quest

Even after you've "won" the game, I'm sure we can interest you in playing again. If your score is less than the maximum, start again from the very beginning and try to find another solution to each of the major puzzles. To help you along, I've included a section at the very end of this book called "After the End of the Game." But, be very cautious using that section, it will ruin the game if you see it too soon!

If you enjoyed this game, you're sure to like the other animated adventure games from Sierra: King's Quest II: Romancing the Throne, King's Quest III: to Heir is Human, Space Quest and The Black Cauldron. After finishing them, be sure to "stay tuned" for Police Quest, "coming soon to a computer near you." Good luck in your adventuring, and here's hoping you enjoy King's Quest!

General Questions

All I do is wander around! What's going on here? There must be more to (adventure game) life than this?!

Yes, the game is a little slow at the first. But don't let this slow down your progress. The game is designed to be played at a pace that is comfortable for you. The game is designed to be played at a pace that is comfortable for you.

There is a lot of things to do in the game. You can explore the world, talk to the people, and solve the puzzles. The game is designed to be played at a pace that is comfortable for you. The game is designed to be played at a pace that is comfortable for you.

The game is designed to be played at a pace that is comfortable for you. The game is designed to be played at a pace that is comfortable for you. The game is designed to be played at a pace that is comfortable for you.

This game is too fast! This game is too slow!

The game is designed to be played at a pace that is comfortable for you. The game is designed to be played at a pace that is comfortable for you. The game is designed to be played at a pace that is comfortable for you.

How do I "drop" objects?

The game is designed to be played at a pace that is comfortable for you. The game is designed to be played at a pace that is comfortable for you. The game is designed to be played at a pace that is comfortable for you.

Am I the only one who "does not succeed" all the time? I'm tired of starting all over again from the beginning of the game. What am I doing wrong?

There is a lot of things to do in the game. You can explore the world, talk to the people, and solve the puzzles. The game is designed to be played at a pace that is comfortable for you. The game is designed to be played at a pace that is comfortable for you.

Go into the castle. Talk to the King. He has a quest for you.
(Hence, the title of the game.)

"Look" at things a lot. Look for objects lying around, and take them with you. (Almost) every object in the game has a purpose, and is used somewhere.

If all else fails, try reading the documentation that came with the game!

On some computers, you can type "slow," "normal," or "fast" to change speeds. (See the reference card for your computer.) Scenes with lots of animation may run at "normal" speed even in "fast" mode.

Just say "Drop (object)." But, in this game, it's better if you don't. Objects dropped can not be picked up again and you'll need just about everything you find.

However, during the game you may "use" things, thus consuming them.

Nothing. Everyone "fails" a lot in adventure games. That's one reason it's so satisfying when you finally solve one. Your problem is you need to "save" your game as you progress. Adventure games are designed to be saved periodically so you don't have to start at the beginning every time you make a mistake.

To save a game, you may need a blank disk, or one with data on it that is no longer needed. (See your reference card for details.)

Just type "save game" at any time to save a game in exactly that spot. Follow the prompts to name your saved game. (See your reference card for further explanation.)

The Kingdom of Daventry

General

Once I leave the castle, how do I get back in?

You can't.

When you're finished with your quest and return to the castle with the three objects King Edward requested, he sends you back out.

But, not back there.

Now that I'm riding on the alligator's back, how do I make him fly?

That's the perfect example of a riddle, and that's not all. It's also the key to what it all for it. Time to you go!

Why are you reading this? There's no way to ride that alligator.

Now, what is he talking about? The alligator is on top of the castle.

Yes, you're right. He's not really. It's a riddle.

The last show, this one, is a lot of answers. It's called a riddle.

From now on, you must promise me you will not, under any circumstances, use this. Even a few seconds. The last one could be a riddle. Even a riddle. Even a riddle. Even a riddle. Now, this is your last. And remember, your time. All I will be doing is to answer it.

What is hidden inside the rock with the small hole?

Nothing.

Is the rock with the small hole a doorway to somewhere?

It's not a doorway, but it's a doorway.

It's not a doorway, but it's a doorway.

What is the last of the three riddles, and it's a riddle. It's not a doorway, but it's a doorway.

You can't.

When you're finished with your quest and return to the castle with the three objects King Edward mentioned, the castle door will unlock.

But, not until then!

This is the perfect example of a phony question. I put this here just to see if you'd fall for it. And -- you did!

Why are you reading this? There is no way to ride that alligator!

Next you'll be sitting on the flagpole on top of the castle.

No, no! You can't do that either. I was just kidding!

This just shows that even lots of answers don't validate a fake question.

From now on, you must promise me not to read answers indiscriminately like this. Even a big answer like this one could well be a phony. Even a seemingly logical question may be wrong. Now raise your hand and repeat after your Uncle Al: I will not look at answers I don't...

Nothing.

It might be a doorway, but not to somewhere.

It might be an exit from somewhere.

After you visit the Land of the Leprechauns, you'll return to Daventry through that hole.

How do I get to that magic mushroom I can see across the river?
Every way I go seems to be blocked by the Raging River.

How can I get the fiddle from the woodcutter?

[illegible]

You might be able to go by air.

Look for something that flies.

Find the condor.

It occasionally appears outside the cave, north of the goat pen.

Sprinkle salt on his tail? (No, just kidding!) He occasionally appears outside the cave.

Move to the middle of the open area outside the cave.

Wait until he swoops down.

Jump up and he'll grab you, taking you for a ride.

Time your jump so you're at your highest point when his head is over you.

Well, you can't.

Find the back entrance to the cave...

...which is down the well.

The woodcutter and his wife are starving. Try helping them.

There's a ceramic bowl lying in the forest.

Find it. Take it. Look at it.

Give them the ceramic bowl, then say "fill" the bowl. They'll be so happy to have something to eat, they'll let you have their precious fiddle.

I'm wearing the woodcutter's clothes. But, what do I do next?

You must be looking at the Black Cottage.

Oh, said there's no woodcutter in that area.

You must be looking at a very special place.

But what? There's no woodcutter in that place, either.

Why are you looking that? You know, you're just looking at the woodcutter's clothes.

Bad Guys

How can I prevent the wolf, troll, ogre, witch, dwarf, and sorcerer from "getting" me?

The first way is to keep all the bad guys away. You should never go to the bad guys.

You should never go to the bad guys. You should never go to the bad guys. You should never go to the bad guys.

Some of them will come to you if the bad is following you. Perhaps it has something to do with the bad's magic. Or

You could wear the magic ring to make yourself invisible. Or

The magic ring will protect you from bad characters.

How can I do anything inside the witch's house? She makes me as soon as I walk inside.

Anytime you enter and find her house, always quickly and try again later.

If she enters while you're in the bathroom, you might try something tricky.

Remember, always and always.

Speak up before her when she's using magic, and make her hear the truth.

You must be thinking of The Black Cauldron.

But, wait! There's no woodcutter in that game.

You must be thinking of King's Quest II.

But, wait! There's no woodcutter in that game, either!

Why are you reading this? You know you're not wearing the woodcutter's clothes.

The best way is to just avoid them entirely. Go around these scenes. Or,

Walk near the edge of the screen. Then, if they come close you can quickly move to another room. Or,

Some of them will avoid you if the goat is following you! (Perhaps it has something to do with the goat's smell!) Or,

You could wear the magic ring to make yourself invisible. Or,

The magic shield will protect you from most characters.

How can I do anything inside the witch's house? She catches me as soon as I walk inside!

Anytime you enter and find her home, leave quickly and try again later.

If she enters while you're in the bedroom, you might try something sneaky.

Remember Hansel and Gretel?

Sneak up behind her while she's fixing dinner, and push her into the oven.

How do I get into the cell inside the witch's house?

You have to open it.

But how do I open it? The witch told me to open it, but she didn't tell me how to open it.

What does the dwarf do? He doesn't seem to hurt me, he just runs about.

The dwarf will help you. He will tell you what you need to do.

What about the sorcerer?

The sorcerer is the one who will help you. He will tell you what you need to do.

Will the troll ever let me cross the bridge?

Yes, he will.

But how do I get across the bridge?

You have to open it.

What constitutes an acceptable treasure to a troll?

Any kind of treasure.

A gold ring.

A gold ring.

A gold ring.

How do I get my dagger back from the troll?

You have to.

The troll will give you the dagger back.

But how do I get the dagger back from the troll?

You don't want to.

Let her catch you outside. She'll bring you back, and put you there -- forever! Just remember, I told you not to do it!

The dwarf won't harm you, but after you find some treasures, he'll steal one from you and you'll not get it back!

He won't kill you, but the spell he casts will immobilize you for awhile.

He has nothing to give you either.

Talk to him.

He'll be glad to let you cross -- for a treasure!

Also, see the hint about the goat.

The pouch of diamonds.

A gold walnut.

The golden egg.

The Leprechaun King's sceptre.

You can't.

Throwing the dagger is not the right answer.

See hints about getting past the troll on the bridge above.

Good Guys

What does the Fairy Godmother do?

She casts a spell that will protect you from your wickedly cousin.

But only for a night, which

The elf sure does run around a lot! I've been successfully avoiding him, but I wonder: can he hurt me?

No, but if you're friendly and talk to him, he'll give you a treasure.

I can't do anything with the goat.

Open the gate and go inside.

Offer him something to eat.

Goats like carrots.

I didn't say to "feed it to him," just offer it.

"How caring" and he'll return you everything.

Now that darn goat is like a shadow. How do I get rid of him?

He'll help you solve a mystery.

Look, look! He's just gone! He's

Take the path to a rock bridge.

The path will turn the goat into a shadow, and you'll be able to leave the bridge without seeing the goat's shadow.

I failed to guess the gnome's name, but he gave me a golden key anyway. It won't unlock the castle door. What does it fit?

Give a hint, or other locked door in all of Waverley.

The woods and field at the garden, on the side of a mountain.

OK, I give up. How do I figure out the gnome's name?

Look for the one named as the gnome's brother for a hint.

Guess his name. Remember, the name can't be 2 words.

She casts a spell that will protect you from some unfriendly creatures.

But only for a little while!

No. But if you're friendly and talk to him, he'll give you a treasure.

Open the gate and go inside.

Offer him something to eat.

Goats like carrots.

I didn't say to "feed it to him," just offer it.

"Show carrot" and he'll follow you everywhere.

He'll help you solve a problem.

Trolls hate goats, for good reason.

Take the goat to a troll bridge.

The goat will butt the troll into oblivion, and you'll be able to cross the bridge without paying the troll a treasure!

There's only one other locked door in all of Daventry!

It's north and west of the garden, in the side of a mountain.

OK, I give up! How do I figure out the gnome's name?

Read the note you found on the witch's bedstand for a hint.

Guess his name. Remember, the note said think backwards.

And how can I get to the gnome's house?
Answer: climb down the chimney!

Go on your hands and knees, like the gnomes, then 2 to 4.

Finally follow your feet, until the gnomes reach 2 to 4.

What does the gnome's song

What can I do to get the gnome's house? The gnome's house

There is a house in the garden, but it is not the house of the gnome.

So you know how to find the gnome's house. The gnome's house is

What is the gnome's house made of?

What is the gnome's house made of?

The gnome's house is

The gnome's house is

The gnome's house is

The gnome's house is

I got the magic beans from the gnome, but where do I plant them?

There is a garden in the house, but it is not the garden of the gnome.

What is the gnome's house made of?

The gnome's house is

The gnome's house is

The Old Well

I have a feeling that there's something at the bottom of the old well. But every time I try to explore it, I fall in and die!

I have a feeling that there's something at the bottom of the old well.

I have a feeling that there's something at the bottom of the old well.

I have a feeling that there's something at the bottom of the old well.

I have a feeling that there's something at the bottom of the old well.

No, you can't just spell his name backwards. You must use a retrograde alphabet. (Huh? That just means a "backwards" alphabet.)

On scratch paper, write the alphabet from A to Z.

Directly below each letter, write the alphabet from Z to A.

Write down the gnome's name.

Find each letter in the gnome's name on the top alphabet.

Below it, write the corresponding letter in the bottom alphabet.

Now you know how to encode the name, but you need a hint as to the name?

Who's the most famous gnome of all time?

Remember your fairy tales!

The gnome's name is:

RUMPLESTILTSKIN

The name in retrograde is:

IFNKOVHGRGHPRM

There are several places: the flower patch, or outside the cave, or the dwarf room, or possibly some others.

Climb into the bucket. It will lower you into the well.

A better solution is to get the bucket first.

You'll need a dagger to cut the rope.

Then, lower the rope.

Climb the rope.

Move down it as if you were walking (arrow keys or joystick).

I'm at the end of my rope. Where do I go from here?

Down. Climb right off the end of the rope and fall into the water.

As soon as you hit the water, start swimming.

Then "Dive" to the bottom.

Swim into the cave opening to your left.

How do I get past the dragon?

Easy. Get rid of the dragon.

Don't get too close or he'll fry you!

Throw your dagger.

Oh, I forgot. If you're too far away, you'll miss him. Strike a happy medium.

For more points, you might come up with a non-violent solution.

How did you get in?

Walk back out through the opening in the right wall (where you came in).

Swim to the top of the well water.

Then, "climb rope" to get out.

The only way is by air.

You must fly beneath the condor.

Catch your flight outside the cave.

For more help, see the condor hints above under "Kingdom of Daventry -- General."

How do I light the torch so I can see in this cave?

It was the only way to survive the winter. The snow was so deep, it was impossible to walk. The only way to survive was to stay in the house.

The first thing I did was to get the fire going. The fire was so important, it was the only way to survive. The fire was so important, it was the only way to survive.

There is a little girl.

You should be ashamed of yourself for talking to me in that way.

How do I get the torch? (You can't get it.)

If you didn't take a flaming log from the witch's stove, skip to ☆ below.

You took a flaming log from the witch's stove??

How?

This is a fake hint.

You should be ashamed of yourself for falling for one as blatant as this!

What torch? (Zonked again!)

How do I get past the guard?

Talk to him.

Give him a treasure.

For more points, find a way to not give him a treasure.

What treasures will the guard accept? (He won't.)

The pouch of diamonds.

A gold walnut.

The golden egg.

How do I get past the Fairy Godmother?

You're going to need some good luck.

You must carry the four-leaf clover.

Remember, you found it north of the Fairy Godmother. (Didn't you?)

Now I'm in the Land of the Leprechauns and I can't leave! How do I get out of here?

OK, I've gotten past the troll, and I've dealt with the gnome. I got the golden key, and unlocked the door in the mountainside. A lot of good it did me! No matter how quickly I try to walk up the stairs, I keep falling off! What is this, an arcade game?

How I can I get to the gnome? (See the hints under "Kingdom of Daventry -- Bad Guys.")

When faced with a tiny door, you'll just have to "get small!"

Did you ever read Alice in Wonderland?

Try eating the magic mushroom.

After you shrink, move quickly before the magic spell wears off.

What, you don't have a magic mushroom?

You can't get it now! You must find it after the condor drops you, but before you enter the hole.

Unless you've dealt with the gnome, you can't.

How can I get to the gnome?

Unless you've dealt with the troll, you can't.

How do I get past the troll?

See the hints under "Kingdom of Daventry -- Bad Guys."

How I can I get to the gnome? (See the hints under "Kingdom of Daventry -- Bad Guys.")

Easy, now. Let's be nice. If you are playing with a joystick, just put the joystick in the corners and you'll move right up.

If you're using the keyboard, find out which keys make you move diagonally and use them. (See the reference card for your computer.)

Easy, now. Let's be nice. First, save the game a lot! Whenever you make a little progress, save again on top of your old one.

If you are playing with a joystick, be sure to use the corners as well.

If you're using the keyboard, find out which keys make you move diagonally and use them. (See the reference card for your computer.) It's very simple, once you find the right keys.

I've finally reached the top of the beanstalk. Now I can't walk on the clouds without falling through!

...get past the troll?

There is a way. You'll just have to experiment until you find it. I suggest you save the game when you are ready to leave the beanstalk, then keep trying until you get off.

Once you're on the clouds, move east staying away from the edges!

For the sling to work, you must also have the pebbles from the beach of the Raging River.

You'll find them two scenes south of the castle. There's no way to use the sling without them.

You need that magic chest he is carrying around.

There is a way for a little guy to slay a giant.

Remember a similar Old Testament situation?

Use the sling and the pebbles you got from the Raging River beach.

Or, try being patient.

I killed him by throwing my dagger.

I "mortified" him, by throwing water on him to douse his flame.

I swam back out through the well, then climbed the rope.

I just walked out after the dragon moved the granite boulder.

I paid him a treasure.

I showed the goat the carrot. He followed me to the troll's bridge, then butted the troll into oblivion!

I used the golden key that I got from the gnome to unlock the door in the mountainside, then climbed the stairs.

I planted the magic beans that I got by guessing the gnome's name, then climbed the beanstalk.

I killed him with the sling and pebbles.

I waited until he fell asleep, then swiped it!

I gave him a treasure.

I gave him the Swiss cheese from the witch's cupboard.

I carried the four-leaf clover.

I played the fiddle for the guard.

...bowing to the king before speaking for extra points?

...letting the witch catch you, and lock you in her jail cell?

...eating the witch's house?

...rubbing the elf's ring to make yourself invisible?

...climbing into the bucket at the old well, and riding down?

...walking into the dragon's fiery breath?

...throwing the bucket of water on the dragon?

...refilling the bucket of water on your way out of the lair?

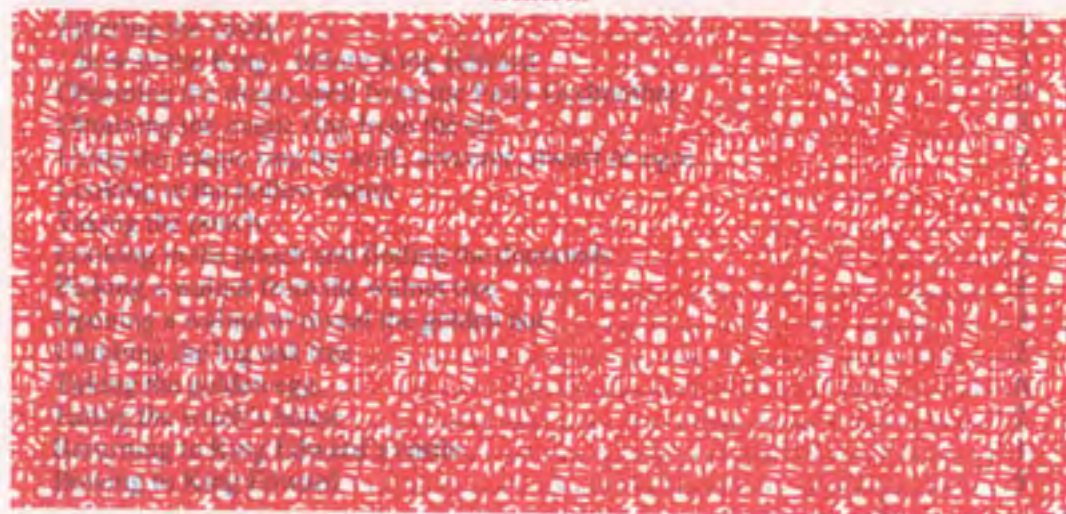

...playing the fiddle for the Leprechaun guard?
